Feel empowered on your Viva Glint journey through guidance, learning, events, and conversations

Welcome

Hello, and welcome to Viva Glint. We are committed to engaging with our customers and empowering you to confidently lead your employee experience programs in your organization.

We are thrilled to offer you resources and programming that will allow you to make the most out of your investment with Viva Glint. On the following pages, we will highlight what is available for you.

These are the go-to places to access all that you need on your Viva Glint journey.

- Viva Glint Community: Visit this one-stop-shop for all things Viva Glint – here you will find content, conversation, events, and more. Links to the other sites below are found on Viva Glint Community, as well.
- Viva Glint Documentation and Learning: Review technical documentation to learn about configuring and launching Viva Glint programs using our people science best practices. This content is best for administrators and managers. In addition, on this site you can explore self-serve training. Discover topics in-depth through guided paths or learn how to accomplish a specific task through an individual module.
- Viva Glint Support: Visit this site for documentation and support for Viva Glint survey takers.

If you have any questions, feedback or ideas about our offerings, please email us at VivaGlintCE@microsoft.com. We look forward to hearing from you.

Become an employee experience expert

Attend our Viva thought leadership events featuring People Scientists and our customers

We know that learning directly from our team, and getting inspired from other Viva customers, is something customers greatly value. We encourage you to join our live events or watch the recordings in your own time. Our event topics include People Science research and insights, AI in the workplace, success stories and learnings from other customers, and more.

Check the Viva Glint events section for upcoming events and registration, as well as recordings from previous events.

Learn how to deploy Viva Glint

Access our documentation on Microsoft Learn

Microsoft Learn is where you will find technical documentation and guidance to help you through key stages of your Viva Glint journey such as planning, designing, and deploying the product.

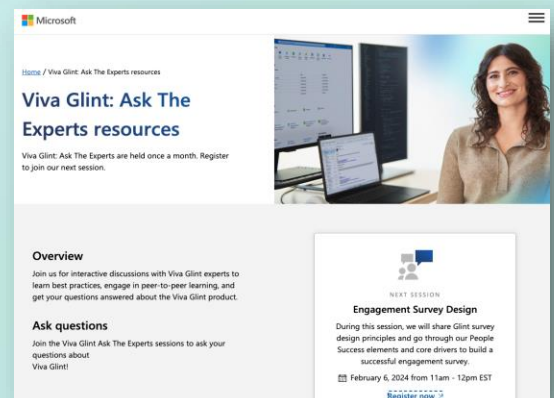

Complete a learning path to gain deeper expertise

Microsoft Learn hosts our online learning paths and modules to help you, and others in your organization, gain deeper expertise using Viva Glint. Modules are small, bite-sized learnings, and learning paths are made up of several modules. In completing a learning path, you can receive digital badges from Credly, to showcase your learning achievements online. Our learning is for both Viva Glint Admins as well as managers who are using Viva Glint.

Attend our live monthly Ask the Experts sessions

Ask the Experts sessions provide new Viva Glint customers with an opportunity to bring their questions to our multi-disciplinary team of People Science, Customer Experience, and Technical Success experts in a Q&A format. Each month we will cover key topics, such as designing your employee survey. Invitations for the monthly sessions will also appear in our monthly newsletter so be sure to sign up if you have questions.

Connect with us

Be instrumental in helping shape Viva Glint by joining our product council

Be part of a community that provides the Viva Glint team with feedback to help shape our product and influence the development of new products through your user experience. This is an opportunity to help us understand your end-to-end customer journey, priorities and challenges, as well as to connect with like-minded customers. Product councils will run quarterly with customers in different regions.

Connect with other employee experience professionals

Learn from other customers through Learning Circles

The Learning Circles program fosters a collaborative environment where you can share knowledge, experiences, and challenges with other employee experience professionals and grow your understanding of Viva Glint. This is a flexible program to use in the way that works for you. Once signed up, we will share our suggested guidelines, introduce you to your circle participants, and you can take it from there!

Get involved

We will have registration periods throughout the year to sign up for our Learning Circles. Learn more here as well as through our recurring newsletter.

Join a customer cohort to connect with likeminded professionals

The purpose of our customer cohorts are to facilitate connections between customers grouped by shared background (e.g., industry), shared purpose (e.g., culture transformation) or shared interest (e.g., AI). Through cohorts, customers will have additional access to relevant content and events, discussion, and sharing and networking opportunities. Groups will have a designated space within the Viva Glint Community to sync with fellow members as well as quarterly live sessions to connect. More to come on customer cohorts on the Viva Glint Community.

Engage with employee experience professionals through discussion boards

Viva Community discussion boards on the Viva Glint Community page are a space to ask questions and share ideas with our teams and your peers.

Get involved

If you'd like input from your peers on an idea you have, or want get a people science perspective, or perhaps have a general question for our team, create a discussion post to get the conversation started.

We look forward to seeing you!
